Sons of the Revolution.

A meeting of the Sons of the American Revolution took place at the office of the Hawaiian Investment Company at noon yesterday. There were about twenty gentlemen present, who elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: P. C. Jones, President; Chief Justice A. F. Judd, Vice-president; John Effinger, secretary; Prof. W. D. Alexander, Registrar; W. J. Forbes, Treasurer, and Rev. D. P. Birnie, J. W. Jones and H. W. Severance to act with the officers as a Board of Managers.

Inspector General Atkinson is home again.

Our morning contemporary's special artist made some good drawings of several members of the Senate while the reading of the Rules of the Senate was going on.

Tourists.

JUNE 5th, 1895.

It is the object of all good citizens to draw as many tourists to the country as possible. The people who travel for pleasure are, as a rule, well supplied with money, and wherever they go they leave money behind. All classes benefit the more money is set in circulation. But to get tourists here, it is necessary to hold out inducements to them. They must know that they can get first class accommodation, and that they will find a first class table. A good table can be set in every hotel, boarding house and private house if those in charge know what and where to buy. I can recommend choice block butter which I receive by every Australia. It is of an excellent and uniform quality from one creamery. Fresh island butter I get by every W.G. Hall. I can also recommend superior family hams, and I always keep a full assortment of everything in the grocery line. My prices are as low as the lowest, and island orders are promptly attended to.

HERE'S AN IDEA:

A chance to get a

PAIR OF SHOES

—FOR—

Ten Minutes' Work!

The question among the business men of Honolulu is:

DOES
ADVERTISING PAY?

To solve the problem as well as to ascertain whether advertisements attract the attention of newspaper readers, we offer a pair of our best $5.00 shoes ($6.50 anywhere else) to the person who sends us, under the head of "Wanted," the cleverest advertisement of our shoes. It must be original, concise, and to the point. It must not be longer than any ordinary want ad. found in the daily papers.

Advertisement to be written on one side of white paper and signed by the competitor's full name and address. State the name of the paper in which you saw this notice and enclose your effort in an envelope marked:

McInerny's Shoe Store,

Honolulu.

Ad. Competition.

The attention of out-of-town subscribers is particularly called to this competition—We want your ad.

Honolulu competitors may drop their envelopes in the box just inside the store door.

Competition Closes at Noon,
June 15, 1895.

Competent judges will decide who is entitled to the prize.

MRS. AUG. DARROW.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co.,

Gentlemen:—I was very much run down, had no appetite at all, was very nervous, had no sleep night or day; to sum it all up, I was perfectly wretched. But thanks to Paine's Celery Compound I can now eat and sleep and work just as well as I could before I was taken sick. When I commenced taking the Compound I weighed 136 pounds; I now weigh 158 pounds and do all the work for my family of five. I have recommended the Compound to three families already and they are very much pleased with it. I am now taking my fifth bottle, and would recommend it to all who are suffering with stomach trouble or nervous trouble.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. AUG. DARROW.

MONTROSE, PA., Sept. 25, 1894.
